English Language Day

Report

The Department of English organized World English Language Day, 23 April on the significance of the English language and the literary legacy of Shakespeare. The programme started with a warm Welcome Address delivered by Asst. Prof. Bhawar S. C., who greeted the dignitaries, staff, and students. This was followed by the traditional Lamp Lighting Ceremony, occasion of birth anniversary of William Shakespeare. The event aimed to highlight the symbolizing the spread of knowledge and wisdom.

Asst. Prof. Bhalerao Ashvini B. delivered the Introductory Speech, elaborating on the importance of World English Language Day and Shakespeare's contribution to English literature. The Chief Guest, Asst. Prof. Amol Kharat, addressed the students. In his speech, he emphasized the global relevance of English and inspired students to appreciate Shakespeare's works for their timeless human values and linguistic richness.

The Presidential Speech was delivered by Asst. Prof. Gophane R. L., who appreciated the efforts of the Department of English and encouraged students to develop communication skills and literary taste. The programme concluded with a Vote of Thanks proposed by Prof. Sahane B., expressing gratitude to the chief guest, dignitaries, teaching staff, and students for their active participation.

The event successfully created awareness about the importance of English language and literature. Students gained insights into Shakespeare's life and works, and the programme fostered literary interest among the students.
