Department of Library
Name of the College:- Nutan Arts College, Rajapur
Date:- 15 October 2026
Venue: - Library Reading Room
Organized by:- Department of Library

* Introduction

The Department of Library celebrated Vachan Prerana Din (Reading Inspiration Day) on 15 October to commemorate the birth anniversary of Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam, the former President of India and a renowned scientist, teacher and author. The main purpose of the programme was to develop reading habits among students and create awareness about the importance of reading books in academic and personal life.

* Objectives of the Programme

. To develop reading habits among students.

. To create awareness about the importance of books and reading.

. To inspire students through the life and achievements of Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam.

. To improve students' vocabulary, language skills, and knowledge.

. To encourage students to read literature, newspapers, biographies, and other informative books.

* Programme Proceedings

The programme was organized by the Department of Library with the active participation of students and faculty members. The programme began with an introductory speech highlighting the importance of reading and the contribution of Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam to Indian society. The faculty members emphasized that reading is an essential habit for academic success, intellectual development, and personality development. Students were encouraged to read books regularly and make reading an integral part of their daily lives. Various reading-related activities, including book reading, book reviews and discussions on inspirational books, were conducted to motivate students. The students participated enthusiastically and shared their views on the importance of reading.

* Outcomes of the Programme

The programme created awareness about the importance of reading among students. It encouraged them to develop regular reading habits and explore different genres of literature. The activities also helped students improve their vocabulary, comprehension, critical thinking, and communication skills. The programme inspired students to follow the ideals of Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam and recognize the role of knowledge and education in personal and social development.

* Conclusion

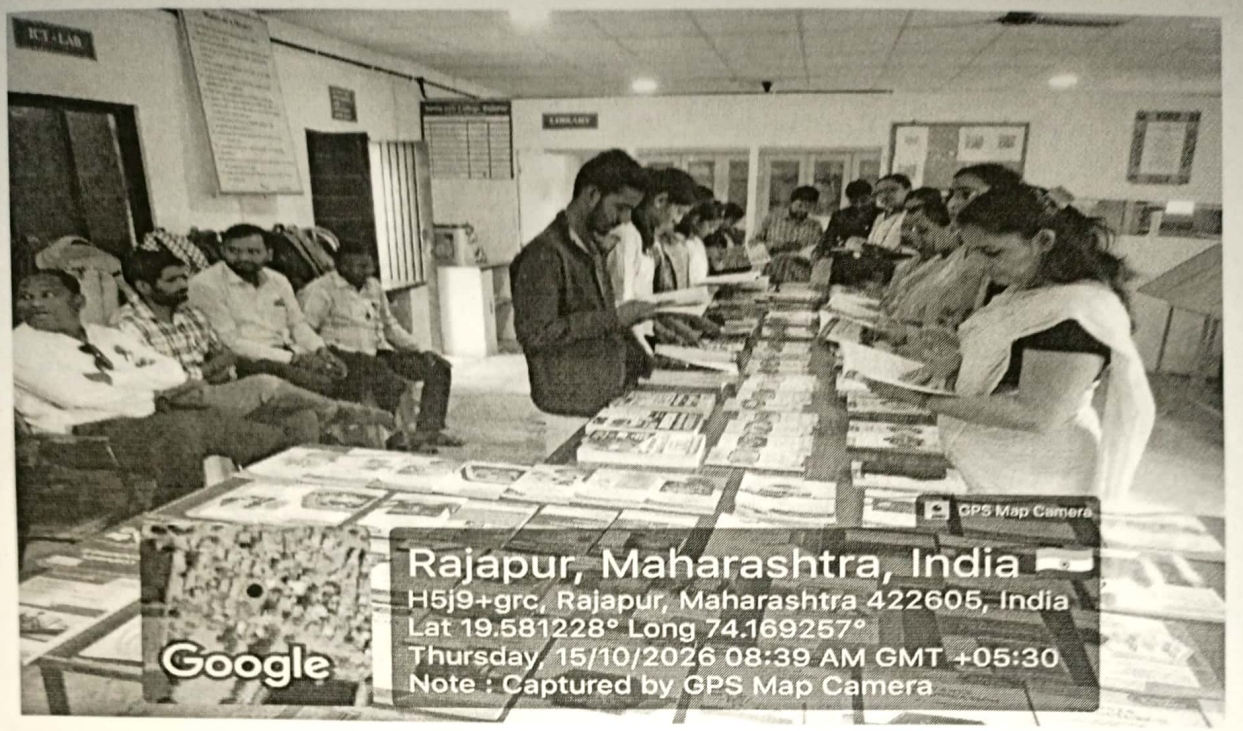

The Vachan Prerana Din programme was conducted successfully by the Department of Library. It provided an opportunity for students to understand the value of reading and its role in lifelong learning. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks to the Principal, faculty members, and students for their cooperation and participation.
